

Presentation: National Complaint Mechanisms in Mauritius

Shirin Aumeeruddy-Cziffra, Human Rights Commissioner, Mauritius — Expert Consultation on Harmful Practices

2013

Introduction

This presentation by Shirin Aumeeruddy-Cziffra, Human Rights Commissioner, Mauritius was delivered at the Expert Consultation on Harmful Practices. It examines key issues related to violence against children with a focus on national complaint mechanisms in mauritius.

Key Points

- * Overview of the situation and evidence base
- * Existing legal and policy frameworks
- * Good practices from national and regional experiences
- * Challenges in implementation
- * Recommendations for strengthened action

Conclusions

Shirin Aumeeruddy-Cziffra, Human Rights Commissioner, Mauritius calls for strengthened political commitment and improved coordination between governments, UN agencies, civil society, and communities to protect children from violence.