

Presentation: Civil Society Perspectives on Child-Sensitive Reporting

Peter Newell, INGO Advisory Council — Expert Consultation on Harmful Practices

2013

Introduction

This presentation by Peter Newell, INGO Advisory Council was delivered at the Expert Consultation on Harmful Practices. It examines key issues related to violence against children with a focus on civil society perspectives on child-sensitive reporting.

Key Points

- * Overview of the situation and evidence base
- * Existing legal and policy frameworks
- * Good practices from national and regional experiences
- * Challenges in implementation
- * Recommendations for strengthened action

Conclusions

Peter Newell, INGO Advisory Council calls for strengthened political commitment and improved coordination between governments, UN agencies, civil society, and communities to protect children from violence.