

Presentation: Child-Sensitive Reporting: Lessons from India

Shanta Sinha, NCPCR India — Expert Consultation on Harmful Practices

2013

Introduction

This presentation by Shanta Sinha, NCPCR India was delivered at the Expert Consultation on Harmful Practices. It examines key issues related to violence against children with a focus on child-sensitive reporting: lessons from india.

Key Points

- * Overview of the situation and evidence base
- * Existing legal and policy frameworks
- * Good practices from national and regional experiences
- * Challenges in implementation
- * Recommendations for strengthened action

Conclusions

Shanta Sinha, NCPCR India calls for strengthened political commitment and improved coordination between governments, UN agencies, civil society, and communities to protect children from violence.